

About Uniting

Uniting has stood with local communities in Victoria and Tasmania for more than 100 years, delivering services to people of all ages.

We work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land.

We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Employment Services

Get the right job for you.

We work with you to find the right job for you to thrive at life. We take the time to understand your situation, your goals and strengths, so you can move into your new role with confidence.

Jobs Victoria Advocates

If you're looking for a job, we can connect you to local skills and training opportunities through Work and Learning Centres, TAFE Skills and Jobs Centres, and apprenticeship programs. We can refer you to a local Jobs Victoria Partner to help you update your resume, prepare for job interviews, help you apply for jobs and connect you with local employers.

Jobs Victoria Mentors

A specialist program to help you become work-ready, find a job that suits your unique skills and connect you to local employers.

Social Housing Employment Program

A program to connect people living in social housing to employment within the social housing sector. We can help with job placement, training and skills development for roles such as tenancy and property administration, security, facilities, gardening and grounds maintenance.

Learn Local

If you're looking to return to study, improve your digital, reading, writing and maths skills, get a job, change careers or learn something new, this program can help.

ParentsNext

If you're a parent with children under 6 and are receiving a parenting payment, we can help you set study and work goals.

ParentsNext is designed to help you plan and prepare for future employment or study through regular meetings with a support worker. We'll sit with you to set work and study goals and to create a participation plan to put your goals into action.
