

Homelessness Support

Our door is always open for you.

Uniting

If you are experiencing or at risk of becoming homeless, we can help you on the path to finding safe and secure accommodation with our homelessness support.

How can we help you?

Whether you're at risk of losing your home or experiencing homelessness, we can help you to establish and maintain appropriate, secure and sustainable housing. We can also give you the confidence and skills to change your situation.

- Advice on paying rent and bills – including information on rental arrears, rent in advance and bonds
- Tenancy support – connecting you to advice about your rights as a tenant to reduce the risk of being evicted
- Housing information – including referrals, support and advice
- Housing options – for people sleeping rough, couch surfing or living in insecure or over-crowded housing
- Referrals to vacancies – including crisis, transitional and long-term housing provided by Uniting
- Community connections – linking you with services, education, employment and training opportunities in your local area.

About Uniting

Uniting has stood with local communities in Victoria and Tasmania for more than 100 years, delivering services to people of all ages.

We work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land.

We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.
