About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land. We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

Uniting has been funded by Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH) to implement the Komak program in partnership with community stakeholders. "Komak", means "help" or "support" in Dari, and provides prevention and engagement activities in the Afghan community to increase inclusion and belonging, and strengthen community capacity and resilience.

Komak also provides early intervention opportunities for parents, peers, community members and service providers to support individuals, particularly young people, who may be vulnerable to anti-social behaviours, including violent extremism. Elements of the Komak program include:

- Referral and support
- Case Management
- Community engagement
- Early response & prevention
- Maintenance of a Local Reference Group to guide and monitor program implementation
- Expert consultation and support panel
- Evaluation of the program

Occasional travel may be required to various Uniting sites (across the South East).

Position Description
