About Uniting

Uniting works alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

Uniting is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We are 7000 skilled, passionate and creative people providing over 770 programs and services.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we celebrate our diversity and welcome all people regardless of ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity or sexual orientation. We acknowledge Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we work. We welcome lesbian, gay, trans, gender diverse and intersex (LGBTIQ) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose:To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injusticeOur values:We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

Position purpose

Date Approved: July 2020

The FP&R Programs provide intensive outreach and assessment services to children, young people and their families involved with Child Protection in the context of Family Preservation and Reunification (FP&R), within the Eastern Division.

The Family Preservation and Reunification program includes both Families First (FF) and Parenting Assessment and Skill Development Service (PASDS). This position may be required to work across both Programs as appropriate.

The Families first program provides intensive six to eight week flexible, informed and creative interventions which are tailored to the individual needs of each family to address protective concerns and parents to meet the needs of the children. The approach also draws on the advice and support of other specialists within the service system; strengthening multidisciplinary intervention and sharing the responsibility to assist families make positive change, and is based on the Home Builders Model. Families First Case Workers also conduct four week pre-reunification assessments prior to the Families First intervention as appropriate.
