1. About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land. We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

2. Program information

Starting Out is a unique Family Services program, which provides an innovative support service to young people 25 years of age or younger who are pregnant or parenting and residing in Melbourne's Eastern Metropolitan Region. Much of the work focuses on enhancing the capacities of young parents and their children to develop positive relationships with each other and the community.

In addition to individual work with families through a Family Services outreach case management model, Starting Out also provides a group based program which focuses on parenting education, attachment based play activities and building social relationships and connections.

3. Position purpose

The Starting Out Case Worker will manage a caseload and provide support to vulnerable babies, children and families with a high level of complexity through provision of case management informed by the Best Interests Case Practice Model.

This includes:

- Providing outreach services to families
- Undertaking ongoing risk assessments
- Developing parenting skills and knowledge
- Proactively intervening to ensure positive outcomes for children and families
- Developing and implementing intervention programs in collaboration with the family
- Participating in the group work program
