About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land. We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

Orange Door

Orange Doors bring together different workforces and practices to create an integrated Orange Door team and a consolidated intake point in each Orange Door area to create a new way of support for:

- women, children, young people and families experiencing family violence
- perpetrators of family violence
- families in need of support with the care, development and well-being of infants, children and young people.

This is achieved by drawing on the expertise of Community Service Organisations (CSOs), Aboriginal Services, Family Safety Victoria (FSV) and Department of Families, Fairness & Housing (DFFH), and bringing together workers from organisations that currently:

- receive police referrals for women who are victims of family violence
- receive police referrals for perpetrators of family violence (known as 'Enhanced Intake Services')
- receive child wellbeing referrals
- provide the Child FIRST service
- deliver other relevant services as appropriate, such as those delivered by Aboriginal services.

Position Description

Orange Door Practitioner

The Orange Door team includes a mix of staff employed CSOs (including Uniting), Aboriginal services and FSV and DFFH.

The Orange Door will have its main location at Box Hill, but in order to be accessible to clients, will establish a number of access points at other locations. Employees may work part of their time at an access point by negotiation.

Within the Orange Door Bayside Peninsula, Uniting will be responsible for the provision of services specifically for families in need of support with the care, development and well-being of infants, children and young people.

Practitioner position

Orange Door practitioners will work as part of a multidisciplinary team of practitioners to deliver high quality, safe and effective responses to children, young people and families experiencing family violence and families in need of support with the care, development and well-being of infants, children and young people.

The Practitioner role includes completion of initial and ongoing assessments for children and families using the "Best Interests" framework and may develop Family Action Plans, Safety Plans and make referrals to other services, as well advocate and provide support to client families.

A matrix management model will apply, with Orange Door practitioners reporting to a Team Leader on a day to day basis. This Team Leader may be any employee of any of the organisations comprising the Orange Door. Formal line management and supervision will be provided to all Uniting employees by the Uniting Orange Door Team Leader. Practitioners will also receive support and guidance from Orange Door Practice Leaders.
