1. About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land. We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

2. Position purpose

The Principal Strategic Advisor (PSA) role is integral to the CHHA in supporting the common agenda by maintaining a deep understanding of the homelessness system and the broader policy environment. It provides high-level advice, advocacy and system integration between the levels of the CHHA (Strategic, Operational and Service Level).

About Central Highlands Homelessness Alliance (CHHA)

The CHHA covers six Local Government Associations: Ararat Rural City Council, City of Ballarat, Golden Plains Shire, Shire of Hepburn, Moorabool Shire Council, and Pyrenees Shire Council. The CHHA has developed from the Local Area Service Network (LASN), which was initiated when the state government brought in the Opening Doors Framework. The CHHA is made up from homelessness funded services in Central Highlands and executive membership from associated services. The CHHA's role is to identify and prioritise regional issues to advocate for the Central Highlands area.

Position description

Principal Strategic Advisor

The CHHA uses a Collective Impact approach to provide specialist expertise and leadership to the homeless system across central highlands. Its objectives are to, use all evidence and data, including the consumer voice to lead, drive and build a service system that:

- Is client focused in its delivery,
- Encourages prevention and safety,
- Delivers quality, measurable outcomes, and
- Is innovative, creative and honest.

Currently, the Department of Health & Human Services and Premier and Cabinet provide funding to CHHA to undertake a range of activities including the engagement of the Principal Strategic Advisor and Children's Resources Coordinator. This funding is held and managed by Uniting Victoria and Tasmania (Uniting), under an auspice arrangement with DHHS. The CHHA Executive provides overall direction for the role and appropriate supervision for the successful fulfilment of the key responsibilities and activities.

The auspice provides human resource management and support to the role including provision of ample workspace, IT infrastructure, stationary and equipment as required.

3. Scope

Budget:

To be developed in conjunction with CHHA, and expended within the extent of authority.
