About Uniting

Uniting works alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

Uniting is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We are 7000 skilled, passionate and creative people providing over 770 programs and services.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we celebrate our diversity and welcome all people regardless of ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity or sexual orientation. We acknowledge Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we work. We welcome lesbian, gay, trans, gender diverse and intersex (LGBTIQ) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice
Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

Position purpose

The Therapeutic Specialist is responsible for the provision of high-quality trauma-informed practice advice and guidance to carers, house team-leaders and other members of the care team. This position is a key member of the care team promoting the therapeutic needs of the young person and promoting the creation of healing environments and experiences. A key function of the role is conducting comprehensive assessment and developing Therapeutic Plans to optimise outcomes for young people that guide the implementation of therapeutically intentional service delivered by all team members. The position also leads reflective practice sessions with staff to problem-solve and collaboratively develop and review strategies and approaches that promote children and young people's healing and progress towards desired outcomes.
