

Venco pottery wheel for hire.

Let your creativity take shape.

Want to try the pottery wheel, or need one for your home studio? Our Venco pottery wheels are available for hire so you can start creating without the big upfront cost.

Affordable weekly hire – Just $55 per week, ideal for beginners, hobbyists, and growing makers.

Fully refundable deposit – $400 bond, returned in full when the wheel is brought back in good condition.

Trusted Australian brand – Venco wheels are known for their smooth operation, reliability, and long-lasting performance.

Perfect for home studios – Compact, sturdy, and quiet, making them ideal for apartments or small creative spaces.

Great for learning or production – Suitable for all skill levels, from first-time potters to small-batch makers.

Flexible terms – Hire for a week, a month, or longer, with no long-term commitment.

Quality assured - Wheel is tested and tagged annually.

Kiln service also available – Fire your finished pieces with us.

Create without the upfront cost – Skip buying a wheel and keep your creativity flowing

Collection & return required from our location.
